All of our campers enjoy days filled with fun and learning. We swim and canoe, make crafts and learn about nature. We start each day with Bible Study and take time to learn about other places in the world and how we can help others during Mission Study. Each day is ended with camp wide games, vespers in the chapel and a campfire on the beach. On special days, we will have cookouts, theme days and more.

Upon registration you will receive a confirmation letter with answers to frequently asked questions, a health form to be completed and brought with you to registration on opening day of your camp session, and a label to make a coin bank to collect your mission offering.
